Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report on Forestry in Sweden My report on forestry in Sweden was originally published in the volume of Foreign Relations of the United States for 1872, and the then Secretary of State, Mr. Fish, also caused a separate edition of it in pamphlet form to be printed and distributed. The Senate having authorized a new edition to be revised by myself (without charge), I immediately consulted Count Wachtmeister, chief of the forestry bureau at Stockholm, as to any new matter that could properly be introduced. He replied that on account of changes that had occurred since my report was made it would be advisable for me to engage Mr. K. G. G. Norrling (extra jagmastare) to prepare a short complete sketch of the present situation of Swedish forestry, which I gladly did. Mr. Norrling is an educated and trained forester, eligible for appointment as chief of range, and has furnished a very able sketch in Swedish, a translation of which forms the fourth to the tenth of the following subdivisions, inclusive. The translation is not...
