Not illustrated. 1896 Excerpt: . . . of the work excellent, though the lessons given by one section of the students only received qualified praise. Mr. Mcnaught examined the students in Music on May 8th. The average mark obtained was 94 per cent. The examiner expressed himself as very pleased with the way in which the students had acquitted themselves in this subject. They had shown more than average facility in all parts of the examination. Miss Pattison conducted the usual examination for certificates in Practical Kindergarten on June 2nd to 5th. Of the 30 secondyear students who were examined, 29 gained certificates of the first class and one of the second class. The certificates are recognised by the School Board for London as qualifying their holders to work in its infants schools without further teaching and examination. In her report Miss Pattison says, among other things: --Miss Reid will no doubt feel highly and justly gratified that her earnest and enthusiastic labours are so well rewarded, for the students have done exceptionally well both in the teaching and the various practical tests of knowledge. RESULTS. --The certificate examination, towards which all the earlier tests which have been mentioned (except Miss Pattisons) contribute marks, commenced on July 13th and ended on July 17th. The Class List shows the following results: --Total 1st Div. 2nd Div. 3rd Div. Failure, presented. Second Year. . . 27 3 0 0 30 First Year. . . 13 15 10 29 The withdrawal of one of the first-year...
