

The Long Journey Home: An Angler's Memoir of Passion Realized and Redeemed (Paperback)

By Brian R. Ellig

Dog Ear Publishing, LLC, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Highly introspective and at times brutally candid, author Brian Ellig, in a writing style reminiscent of The Waltons , reveals his very soul in this poignant memoir chronicling his extraordinarily long and trying journey in search of true self and home. The Long Journey Home: An Angler's Memoir of Passion Realized and Redeemed is the story of a common man, who, through his extensive travels across America, came to realize (and then deeply appreciate) the joy and peace of mind that nature and the art of fly fishing brought to him in his decades-long struggle to both overcome his life's stresses and discover his true essence. Ellig's love affair with fly fishing started in April 1992, on a quiet little trout stream by the name of Slippery Rock Creek. Ellig's friend and business associate, Keith Yenets, introduced him to the sport while Ellig was on contract assignment at the Beaver Valley Power Station in Shippingport, Pennsylvania. The peace and solitude of fly fishing that April evening spoke to a part of...
