Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Appeal to the Christian Women of the South, Vol. 1 Solomon says, faithful are the wounds of a friend. I do not believe the time has yet come when Christian women will not endure sound doctrine, even on the subject of Slavery, if it is spoken to them in tenderness and love, therefore I now address you. To all of you then, known or unknown, relatives or strangers, (for you are all one in Christ, ) I would speak. I have felt for you at this time, when unwelcome light is pouring in upon the world on the subject of slavery; light which even Christians would exclude, if they could, from our country, or at any rate from the southern portion of it, saying, as its rays strike the rock bound coasts of New England and scatter their warmth and radiance over her hills and valleys, and from thence travel onward over the Palisades of the Hudson, and down the soft flowing waters of the Delaware and gild the waves of the Potomac, hitherto shalt thou come and no further; I know that even professors of His name who has been emphatically called the Light of the world would, if they could, build a wall of adamant around the Southern States whose top might reach unto heaven, in order to shut out the light which is bounding from mountain to mountain and from the hills to the plains and valleys beneath, through the vast extent of our Northern States. But believe me, when I tell you, their attempts will be as utterly fruitless as were the efforts of the builders of Babel; and why? Because...
