Standing in the Need of Prayer: A Celebration of Black Prayer (Hardback)

By -

Free Press, United States, 2003. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 208 x 201 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. From the darkest days on slave ships to the defiant times of the Civil Rights Movement, prayer has embodied the most intense expression of African and African-American spirituality. As Mrs. Coretta Scott King writes in her foreword to Standing in the Need of Prayer, It is said that every prayer is heard and every prayer is answered in some way [and] I still believe that the millions of prayers spoken by African Americans from the Middle Passage on down to today have been heard by a righteous and loving God. In this remarkable book, striking photographs and powerful prayers drawn from the unparalleled collections of the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture span the broad spectrum of black religious traditions during the nineteenth, twentieth, and twenty-first centuries. From the plaintive Yoruba prayer to Look after us, /Look after our children and the humble opening prayer of the Qur'an to Guide us on the right path to W. E. B. Du Bois's prideful prayer to Let [Thy children] grow in the capacity for worthy work and may they in the...
