But outside of these operations of exceptional hazard, the regular work of the Government employees caused a loss of 361 lives during the three years reported for, and many offices and branches of service from which comparatively few accidents were reported registered an important proportion of fatalities. There were several fatal accidents in branches of service not covered by this law, such as the Railway Mail Service, Rural Free Delivery, Life-Saving Service, Indian Service, etc. CLAIMS FOE COMPENSATION. Out of accidents which occurred...
