Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The World War: A Syllabus of the World War for Use in the High Schools of the City of New York To Principals of High Schools: All the material in Chapters I-VII of the accompanying High School Syllabus of the World War should be taught during the term ending January 31st, 1919, in the most efficient and inspiring manner, to all the pupils in your school. Notice will be sent later in reference to the teaching of this subject during subsequent terms. I leave to your judgment the determination of the amount of time to be devoted to this subject and the teachers by whom it is to be taught. Opportunity should be afforded for reproduction of the subject matter by pupils as well as for presentation by the teacher. The subject matter included in this syllabus may be supplemented by additional data as the war progresses. All such material, however, should be approved by the Principal of the school before it is used in the classroom. In addition to imparting a correct intellectual understanding of the causes, events and issues of the war, our teachers should inspire the pupils with a love for the ideals and an appreciation of the sacrifices of our country. The American Army of the future, both men and women, are in our schools to-day. Never before have our teachers had so grave a responsibility or so wonderful an opportunity. History should be taught so that a deep emotional appeal shall be made in all topics. A lasting effect can be produced on the ideals, purposes and emotions of the child only by arousing deep feeling in connection with the...
