A READER FOR THE FIFTH GRADE (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Reader for the Fifth Grade School readers in the fourth and fifth years of school usually emphasize the enlargement of vision and interests of those periods of development. But while the currents of child-life constantly grow broader and deeper at this time, pupils are still children, and crave games, tales, adventure, and the world of nature. The Fifth Reader of this series recognizes the permanence of these instincts by including the finest of the great myths. Biography, travel, manners and customs, and civics are introduced as important influences. Finally, the strictly imaginative, in abundance, gives glimpses of the great world of fiction. The list of authors contains the names of classic writers long familiar in standard literature, and the names of many others who have, in more recent years, won the hearts of the great reading public - both children and grown people - by their charming descriptions of nature and of the life of the present day. It has been the special object of the authors in both the Fourth and Fifth Readers to present selections of a high literary standard and at the same time of real human interest. While duly recognizing limitations they confidently make their appeal to teachers, and they believe that these volumes will prove to be interesting to children. Children of this grade who have been well trained should read with ease most subject matter within the range of their experience.
