Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Tasmanian Field Naturalists Club: Easter Camp, 1922, Adventure Bay, Bruny Island, Tasmania Around the coasts of Tasmania there are many beauty spots which offer a haven to naturalists or other kindred souls to whom the call of the open is not made in vain. Each Easter, for 18 years past, the Tasmanian Field Naturalists Club has organised a camping trip to one or other of the coastal bays. Here the scientists can pursue their studies amidst Nature's realm, and the less scientific members can spend their time admiring the ways of the wild without probing too deeply into its secrets. Various localities have been visited, and the romance of the state's early history gives an added interest to such camping sites as Adventure Bay, Port Arthur, and Eaglehawk Neck; whilst for charm of scenery. Wineglass Bay, on Freycinet Peninsula (The Schoutens), will ever be remembered. It was here in 1914 that the record camp of one hundred members was held. The war era and the resultant economic position, however, have had...
