RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 38 pages. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)50128832 Subject: Aeronautics, Commercial -- Passenger traffic -- Security measures -- United States. Excerpt: . . . ited States is one of only three countries in the world--the other two are Canada and Bermuda-- that give the airlines the responsibility for passenger screening. In fact, in 100 of the 103 countries with commercial airports, screening is done by either the government or by the airport. We can no longer rely on contractors and subcontractors nor on employees with high turnover rates. We need well-trained, professional Federal Government security experts to be the central and first line of defense for airport security. According to the General Accounting Office report, the average employment turnover rate for airport screening personnel at 19 major airports in the United States is 126 percent. 1 We have put this poster up here that you can take a look at, if you can read numbers that small from that far away. The turnover rate was as high as 416 percent at St. Louis- Lambert airfield. Other countries have registered employment turnover rates for airport screeners that are less than 50 percent,...
